✓ 1. Mrs. Bradshaw, office of Senator Byrd, called to request further information on the status of SSU. Told her that a memo summarizing the Executive Order would be supplied.

STATINTL ✓ 2. [REDACTED] whom Rep. Carter Manasco had referred, called to say that she had taken a job with the Post Office Dept. After consultation with [REDACTED] I instructed [REDACTED] to flag the case, so that when clearance came through she would be offered the opportunity of coming over from P.O. Suggested to [REDACTED] that she discuss with Rep. Manasco the advisability of changing jobs when he returns to town the end of the month.

STATINTL ✓ 3. Talked with the Director and [REDACTED] regarding the necessity of preparing CIG legislation prior to the meeting of the next session of Congress, which received the approval of the Director. Also informed the Director of the splendid reaction which had obtained from his meeting with General Gruenther, Chief of the Joint Staff.

STATINTL ✓ 4. Drafted letter to Rep. Mary T. Norton, (D., N.J.), informing her that [REDACTED] had been told there was no vacancy but that we had contacted him to say that we would be glad to have his application on file in case a suitable vacancy should occur. Sent on /6 Sept.

STATINTL 5. Received call from Mrs. Bower, secretary to Rep. George Bender, (R., O.), STATINTL re application of "a very dear friend of the Congressman", [REDACTED] STATINTL
STATINTL Said [REDACTED] in Personnel had told [REDACTED] not to take another job until he heard from CIG, & reported that he would be at the Stephens Austin Hotel, Austin, Tex., through Sept. 19, in case we wished to contact him. Checked with Personnel and STATINTL learned that [REDACTED]'s application is being shopped in ORE.

✓ 6. Telephoned Mrs. Feeney, office of Rep. John J. Delaney, (D., N.Y.), that rejection letter had gone out today to [REDACTED] STATINTL

✓ 7. Mrs. Ganley, office of Rep. Hal Holmes, (R., Wash.), called to ask proce-
STATINTL dure in applying for position for [REDACTED] She's to have him fill out 57's and forward them to us when they have been returned to the Congressman's office.

✓ 8. Received another call from Mrs. Bower, secretary to Rep. George Bender, to make a routine check on the application of [REDACTED] Learned STATINTL from Personnel that he had been told there was nothing on 26 June.

STATINTL 9. Meeting with Mr. Shepherd and Mr. Bryan, Bureau of the Budget, and Mr.
[REDACTED] in which I brought to their attention the leak in our personnel figures to the House Civil Service Committee. It was the general feeling that insofar as we had supplied the War Dept. with monthly personnel figures up to 30 June 1947, that this in all probability was the source. Discussed with them further CIG enabling legislation which they suggested we prepare and submit to them directly.
